House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-3313

February 15, 2019

The Honorable Nancy Pelosi
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Madam Speaker:

H. Res.109 was recently introduced in the House and already has 67 cosponsors. Specifically, the resolution's title is "Recognizing the duty of the Federal Government to create a Green New Deal." It is a plan to combat climate change and has already been embraced by several presidential candidates, including Senators Kamala Harris (D-CA), Kirsten Gillibrand (D-NY), and Cory Booker (D-NJ).

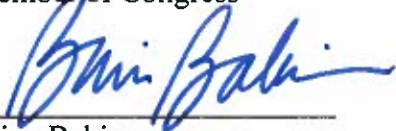

Many people don't believe that Congress works the way it should. One way to change that is by debating, and ultimately voting on more pieces of legislation that aim to address the issues that our constituents care about. This is why we urge you to bring H. Res. 109 to the floor for a vote as soon as possible.

This specific piece of legislation has gotten a lot of attention recently and our constituents deserve to know where their representatives stand on it. A recorded vote is the surest way to find out. While there may be some pushback to this, we would add that former President Franklin Delano Roosevelt said in his 1932 inaugural address that "the only thing we have to fear is fear itself.."

Sincerely,

Ted Budd
